LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 136, Figueroa. Professions and commissions.

(1) Existing law provides for a Joint Committee on Boards, Commissions, and Consumer Protection and authorizes the chairperson of a policy committee to refer to that committee any legislative issues or proposals that would have specified effects, including those that would increase licensing requirements.

This bill would authorize referral where the issues or proposals would make any change to licensing requirements or would modify the scope of practice.

(2) Existing law requires a person with a registered dental assistant license to, on or before January 1, 2005, provide evidence of having successfully completed board approved courses in radiation safety and coronal polishing.

This bill would instead require the evidence to be provided on or before January 1, 2006. The bill would require the holder of an inactive license to comply with this requirement only as a condition of returning his or her license to active status.

(3) Existing law exempts a physician and surgeon licensed by the Medical Board of California from payment of a renewal fee if he or she has applied to the Division of Licensing for a retired license.

This bill would require the board to refund any fees paid by a physician and surgeon who applied to convert from retired status to active status on or after January 1, 2004, but prior to January 1, 2005, except as specified. Existing law provides for a Medical Board of California Enforcement Program Monitor appointed by the Director of the California Medical Board. Existing law requires the board and its staff to provide the monitor with data, information, or case files requested by the monitor to perform his or her duties. Existing law requires the monitor to submit an initial written report of findings and conclusions to the board, the department and the Legislature prior to September 1, 2004, and requires the monitor to submit a final report prior to September 1, 2005.

This bill would provide that the provision of the data, information, or case files does not constitute a waiver of any exemption from disclosure or discovery or of applicable confidentiality protections or privileges. The bill would also change the deadline for submission of the initial written report to November 1, 2004, and the deadline for submission of the final report to November 1, 2005.

(4) Existing law, the Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists Licensure Act, provides for the licensing and regulation of speech-language pathologists and audiologists by the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Board, in the Department of Consumer Affairs. These provisions will become inoperative on July 1, 2006, and will be repealed on January 1, 2007.

This bill would instead make these provisions inoperative on July 1, 2007, and repeal them on January 1, 2008.

Existing law provides for the appointment of 9 members to the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Board. It limits service on the board to 2 consecutive 4-year terms.

This bill would, commencing November 30, 2004, stagger the terms of service on the board by revising the length of terms to one to 4 years, as specified, and would count that term for purposes of the 2 consecutive term limit. The bill would make succeeding terms 4 years each.

(5) Existing law provides for the licensing and regulation of occupational therapists by the California Board of Occupational Therapy. These provisions will become inoperative on July 1, 2006, and will be repealed on January 1, 2007.

This bill would instead make these provisions inoperative on July 1, 2007, and repeal them on January 1, 2008.

(6) Existing law provides for the licensing and regulation of optometrists by the State Board of Optometry in the Department of Consumer Affairs, and provides for the appointment of an executive officer for the board. These provisions will become inoperative on July 1, 2006, and will be repealed on January 1, 2007.

This bill would instead make these provisions inoperative on July 1, 2008, and repeal them on January 1, 2009.

(7) Existing law provides for the licensing and regulation of acupuncturists by the Acupuncture Board, requires the board to employ necessary personnel, and provides for the appointment of an executive officer for the board. These provisions will become inoperative on July 1, 2005, and will be repealed on January 1, 2006.

This bill would instead make these provisions inoperative on July 1, 2006, and repeal them on January 1, 2007.

(8) Existing law provides for licensing and regulation of marriage and family therapists and clinical social workers by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Existing law requires applicants for licensure in these professions to meet certain requirements, including authorizing an oral examination to be required of applicants. Existing law imposes certain examination fees on applicants, including fees for written and oral examinations.

This bill would revise provisions related to the oral examination and would instead require an applicant who is successful in passing the written examination and who has not passed an oral examination to take and pass a clinical vignette written examination. The bill would establish the fee for taking the clinical vignette written examination at $100 and the fee for reexamination at $150. The bill would authorize the board to adjust all examination fees for these professions beginning on January 1, 2005, to reflect actual costs incurred in holding the examinations. The bill would make other related changes.

(9) Existing law provides for licensing and regulation of accountants by the California Board of Accountancy. Existing law, until January 1, 2006, establishes various examination requirements for persons seeking a certified public accountant certificate from the board.

This bill would extend the operation of certain of these provisions until January 1, 2010. The bill would revise certain examination requirements and make various other changes.

(10) Existing law, the Private Security Services Act, requires registration of security guards and security patrolpersons by the Bureau of Security and Investigative Services. Under the act, these registrants are required to complete 32 hours of training in security officer skills.

This bill would allow a registrant who is unable to provide evidence of having completed this training, to fulfill this requirement within 6 months of employment as a security guard or security patrolperson.

(11) Existing law, the Contractors' State License Law, creates the Contractors' State License Board and makes it responsible, through its registrar, for the licensure and regulation of contractors. Under this law, a licensure applicant is required, effective July 1, 2004, to submit a set of fingerprints for the board to obtain criminal history information from the Department of Justice and the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation.

This bill would instead require the board to obtain a licensure applicant's criminal history information from the Department of Justice when sufficient funds are available to the board and department for this purpose or on July 1, 2005, whichever occurs first.

(12) Existing law establishes the California Heritage Preservation Commission, the Commission for Economic Development, the Boating and Waterways Commission, and the Off-Highway Motor Vehicle Recreation Commission, with specified powers and duties.

This bill would terminate these commissions on July 1, 2006.

(13) Existing law establishes the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education in the Department of Consumer Affairs, and requires the bureau to make various determinations and to report to both the Director of Consumer Affairs and the Joint Committee on Boards, Commissions, and Consumer Protection by October 1, 2005.

This bill would instead require the bureau to report to those entities by March 1, 2005.

(14) This bill would incorporate additional changes in Section 5090.15 of the Public Resources Code proposed by AB 2666 that would become operative only if AB 2666 and this bill are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 2005, and this bill is chaptered last.

(15) This bill would provide that its provisions are severable.

(16) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.
